

National Sorry Day Acknowledgement

Preamble

On 26 May 1997, the Australian Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission tabled in Federal Parliament its report Bringing Them Home National Inquiry into the Separation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children from their Families. It recommended that a 'Sorry Day' be held.

In 1998, on the first Sorry Day, around a million people signed Sorry Books and took part in ceremonies on Sorry Day.

In May 1999, this people's movement launched a 'Journey of Healing' to remind us to acknowledge the past and build a framework for the future. "The past is never fully gone. It is absorbed into the present and the future. It stays to shape what we are and what we do".

- Sir William Deane, former Governor-General of Australia, August 1996

City of Prospect is aware that it cannot rewrite history but it can help shape the future by starting in Prospect with a Prospect Sorry Day Acknowledgement and Statement of Reconciliation to work together for justice and equity for all people.

City of Prospect acknowledges those regrettable circumstances that allowed Aboriginal children to be forcibly removed from their families and we say "sorry".

We understand the impacts of forced removal are still part of the lives of many Aboriginal people today.

We as a community commit to allow Aboriginal people to heal and understand that grieving will take time.

We look forward to learning more about our shared heritage and encouraging goodwill between the culturally diverse families of our city.
